8 YEARS

Jose and David (Miguel Diosdado and Carlos Mestanza) were once deeply in love. For seven years, their romance grew and blossomed, through highs and lows – before they ultimately faltered and broke up. Now, after not seeing each other for some time, they decide to vacation together in the place where they first fell in love - the picturesque La Palma Island - to see if they can reignite the passion both so sorely miss. A searing romantic paean to the enduring nature of love, the bonds we create and the sometimes thorny road we take in rekindling what was lost, 8 Years is a gorgeously rendered story of two men who simply want to reconnect. Gorgeous and moving, the film is also notable as the last movie shot on La Palma before a volcanic eruption in 2021.

"André Téchiné's most personal —and arguably best—film"
—Emanuel Levy, Variety

Wild Reeds

"Touching and honest."
—Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

One of the most affecting depictions of young gay love ever committed to the screen, Wild Reeds is a tender and intelligent drama. Acclaimed director André Téchiné touchingly deals with friendship, coming out, teen sexuality and life during wartime.

At a rural boarding school in the south of France, timid student Francois (Gaël Morel) discovers his sexuality when he enters into an erotic relationship with muscular farm boy Serge (Stéphane Rideau). A bizarre love triangle soon forms between Serge, Francois and his politically-motivated best friend Maetie (Élodie Bouchez) - all while the French/Algerian war rages in the background, paralleling the tumult of self-discovery that comes at the crossroads between youth and adulthood.

A poignant drama that beautifully captures the universal ecstasy, pain and loneliness of young love, Wild Reeds is coming to DVD and Blu-ray in a gorgeous new restoration from cult/indie distribution label Altered Innocence. Originally released in 1994, the film has long been unavailable... until now.

A NEW 4K RESTORATION OF A SEMINAL GAY CLASSIC!

SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE BATHS

Newly restored in 4K, David Buckley's landmark excursion into bisexuality, 1970s relationship politics and the historical importance of gay bathhouse culture is celebrated in his 1975 film Saturday Night at the Baths.

When struggling pianist Michael (Robert Aberdeen) lands a job at the legendary Continental Baths in New York City, his wife Tracy (Ellen Sheppard) encourages him, even emphasizes how special this institution is. Michael, however, struggles with his own homophobia, yet starts developing feelings for his confident and sexually free co-worker Scotti (Don Scotti).

Shot on-location inside the famous Continental Baths and featuring an unforgettable 12-minute scene of the actual entertainment, both musical and sensual alike, Saturday Night at the Baths is a sublime example of the compelling and sensual queer cinema of one of the most groundbreaking periods in gay and bisexual film history.

DIS CONNECTING

As we all strive to find the perfect work/life balance, writer/director Alter Sin wants you to try Dis-Connecting. Chiseled Tyler Berg (and his impossibly haunting blue grey eyes) stars as a corporate executive who has lost his emotional and spiritual way. The adorably cute (and rambunctious) Ken Summers is the young ward in charge at the exotically ruinous villa where Tyler hopes to (re)connect with himself. Will Ken's increasingly flirtatious prodding break down the walled-off Tyler? Their post-thunderstorm outdoor tryst electrifies this magnificently intimate bareback opus that also features Andy Onassis, Jackson Radiz, and Justin Jett. Shot on location in the stunning picturesque Spanish countryside with all natural light, you will not only feel as if you could inhale its fresh air... you will all-too-quickly long to be there. It's time for you to disconnect and plug into Dis-Connecting.

Available only from us on DVD or Blu-ray Disc (also via download or streaming rental on TLAGay.com), this is one exclusive you can't afford to miss.
